THE HEROES OF PEACE, AND THE

HEROES OF WAR. troubles of women are entirely cured by the Graefon-erz Marshall's Uterine Catholicon. In this connection, Mass Beocher, sister of the Rev, enry Ward Beocher, in Letters to the People, page E. ANTHONY, NO. 501 BROADWAY, N. YORK is now publishing, in addition to other portraits, the celebrated collection known in Europe and America as "I have him sisters and sister-in-laws, and fouriers female consins, all married, and all delicate and ailling. Amid the immense circle of my friends and acquaintances, I cannot recall test married laddes born in this century and country, who are perfectly healthy." In cases, however, wherethe Graefenberg Catholicon has been used, we must say that health has rapidly taken the place of disease, and ladds have become robust, strong, vigorous, and healthy.

Mrs. Glesson, of Blusins, says: "Beautiful, indeed, is the confiding, trusting nature of woman, but how much does it must to be protected by a watchfulness that will lead her in time of disease to appeal to a medical advisor of sciontific education, moral worth and purity of character."
